EDITION LIMITED TO TWO HUNDRED COPIES

HE main purpose of this pamphlet is to record the genealogical history of Eliab Alden of Middleborough, Massachusetts, and of Cairo, New York, and of his descendants, of whom none, it is believed, have been omitted.

The data for this history have been gathered from records in the Bible of Mary (Hathaway) Alden, Eliab's wife, from personal letters from the individuals mentioned, when still living, or from their immediate relatives cognizant of the facts, and from the compiler's own knowledge. In some cases an authority has been given, but generally it has been considered unnecessary.

To this history a brief account of Eliab's four Alden ancestors and their immediate families is prefixed, to connect him with John the Pilgrim, and as a matter of interest to readers not familiar with the subject. This account is based on such authorities as were immediately available, original research not being practicable nor deemed essential to the present purpose.

The works consulted were Governor Bradford's "History of Plimoth Plantation," Davis' "History of Plymouth," Goodwin's "Pilgrim Republic," Thayer's "Genealogy of Fourteen Families," Dr. Ebenezer Alden's "Memorial," and two recent partial Alden genealogies, — "The Ancestors and Descendants of Isaac Alden and Irene Smith," by Mrs. H. C. Fielding of East Orange, New Jersey, 1903 ; and "The Descendants of Polly and Ebenezer Alden," by Ebenezer Alden and Dr. Henry Shaw, 1903. The latter contains much of interest about the earlier Aldens, the first four ancestors being common to Ebenezer and Eliab, and gives the text of old documents not previously published, inscriptions on gravestones, etc. It has been drawn on freely by the present writer.

The files of the "Mayflower Descendant," George Ernest Bowman, editor, have been particularly useful, as they give exact transcripts of original wills, deeds and other papers relating to the early Aldens.

In the N. E. Historical and Genealogical Register of recent years are to be found many contributions to the genealogy of the Alden family, by Mrs. C. L. Alden of Troy, N. Y.

The lack or incompleteness of early records is much to be regretted, yet is not surprising. There must have been little opportunity, in the hard struggle for existence by the Pilgrims, for careful note of current events and genealogical data. Nor was exactness always observed in the records made. Proper names were often spelled variously. The gravestone of Hannah, wife of John³ Alden, next to her husband's, gives her last name as "Allden," and ten other ways of spelling "Alden" have been noted. This want of exactness may have extended to statements of age, and perhaps accounts for some puzzling discrepancies.

The dates given in these pages are, to avoid confusion, all reduced to "New Style." It may be of interest to note that the new style of reckoning time went into official use in 1752, by Act of Parliament, which required that eleven days should be added to the current date and that the year should begin January 1st, instead of March 25th, the date of beginning up to that time. The English calendar was thus made to correspond with that already adopted by all other countries except Russia. Ten days, not eleven, is the number to be added in early colonial times, from 1620 to 1700. Anticipating the change in the beginning of the year, it had been the practice for some years previous to 1752, to give the dates between January 1st and March 24th, thus, Feb. 10, 1701/2 or 1701-2.

The small number above and to the right of the given name indicates the generation, John the Pilgrim being John¹.

An index of names, including those of persons who married or who descended from an Alden is appended, and also one of places.

The compiler is indebted to Mr. George Ernest Bowman for valuable suggestions, and to Mr. John Alden Spoor for sharing the expense of publication.

FIRST GENERATION

JOHN¹ ALDEN, the "Pilgrim," was born about 1599, probably in England, though his history prior to his joining the Mayflower company at Southampton in August, 1620, is as yet unknown. The year of his birth is inferred from a deposition made at Plymouth, July 6, 1682, in which he stated he was then aged 83. He was one of the signers of the "Compact" on board the Mayflower at Cape Cod, November 21, 1620, and landed with the other passengers at Plymouth in December.

Governor Bradford, in his "History of Plimoth Plantation" wrote:—"John Alden was hired for a cooper, at South Hampton wher the ship victuled ; and being a hopfull yong man, was much defired, but left to his own liking to go or stay when he came here ; but he stayed and maryed here."

It may be that John Alden joined the Pilgrims from love of adventure, and that, as Goodwin in his "Pilgrim Republic," page 566, suggests, Priscilla Mullins was the chief inducement for him to remain ; but whatever his motive at first, he early identified himself with them and through a long life was a devoted and useful member of the colony. For forty-three years he was a Governor's Assistant, being at times First Assistant and Deputy Governor ; for thirteen years he was Treasurer of the Colony, and for eight years Deputy to the General Court, sometimes filling several offices at once. He was a member of the Council of War of the Colony for eight years.

About 1623 he married Priscilla, daughter of William and Alice (——) Mullins, who with this daughter and young son Joseph had joined the Pilgrims at Southampton. William Mullins died March 3, 1621, and his wife and son shortly after, during the sickness which proved fatal to half the Colony, the first winter and spring.

Some interesting facts about the Mullins family are known. William Mullins made a will just before he died, which was sent back to England by the Mayflower on her return, to be probated at Dorking, in the County of Surrey, his former residence. This will shows that the testator had left behind in England a son, William Mullins, Jr., and a married daughter, Sarah Blunden, and provides "Allsoe if my sonne William will come to Virginia, I give him my share of land." After his father's death, William Mullins, Jr., came to this country with his daughter Sarah, and resided in Duxbury. Sarah, who was born about 1621, married successively Thomas Gannett of Duxbury, William Saville and Thomas Faxon, both of Braintree, surviving her last husband seventeen years. Her father died in Braintree, February 12, 1673. ("Mayflower Descendant," Vol. I, page 230: Vol. VII, pages 37 and 179.)

After a few years, to obtain more land, John Alden, with Capt. Myles Standish and others, moved a few miles northward from Plymouth and founded Duxbury. Part at least of his land is still owned by Aldens and the site of his well is pointed out, near the "Old Alden House" built by one of his early descendants and still occupied by a late one.

He died in Duxbury, September 22, 1687, but it is not known where or when Priscilla died nor where either of them is buried. Goodwin in "The Pilgrim Republic," page 542, says that they were both present at the burial of Josiah Winslow, in 1680, but gives no authority. John's Bible and several documents with his signature are preserved in Pilgrim Hall at Plymouth.

John Alden left no will, having, it is supposed, distributed his real estate while still living, but an inventory of other property and the settlement of his estate by his son Jonathan, the administrator, dated June 13, 1688, are recorded in Plymouth. They are transcribed in "Mayflower Descendant," Vol. III, page 10.

Bradford, in his History already quoted, wrote, thirty years after the landing of John and Priscilla, "who are both living and have 11 children." Owing to lack of early records, the exact date and order of birth of these children, and even the names of several, are in doubt and can only be inferred from collateral data. The following list is believed to be as complete as can be made at present: —

- i. ELIZABETH, born about 1624, as she died May 31, 1717, in the 93rd year of her age. She married in 1644, William Paybody of Little Compton, R. I., and was an ancestor of Henry W. Longfellow.
- ii. JOHN, the "Captain," mariner of Boston, born about 1626, as his gravestone gives age as 75 at his death March 14, 1702. He married 1. Elizabeth — ; 2. Elizabeth Phillips, widow of Abiel Everell.
- iii. JOSEPH, born probably in 1627, and after the division of cattle on June 1st, as he is not

- mentioned in the list with his elder sister and brother ; died February 8, 1697. He married Mary Simmons and was the great grandfather of Eliab Alden of Cairo.
- iv. SARAH, born about 1629, died before June, 1688. She married Alexander Standish, of Duxbury, son of Captain Myles Standish.
- v. JONATHAN, born about 1632, as his gravestone states that he died February 14, 1697, in the 65th year of his age ; Captain in the Militia. He administered on and inherited his father's estate in Duxbury. He married Abigail Hallett.
- vi. RUTH, born 16—, died October 12, 1674. She married, 1657, John Bass of Braintree, and was an ancestor of John Adams and John Quincy Adams.
- vii. MARY, born 16—, married, it is generally stated, Dr. Thomas Delano, or De la Noye, of Duxbury, and died before 1699, when her husband married a second wife, though there is no record to prove that Delano's wife was named Mary. ("Mayflower Descendant," Vol. VI, page 22.)
- viii. DAVID, born 1646, died 1719, married Constant Southworth. He was active in church and public affairs in Duxbury. He is believed to have been the last born of the children of John and Priscilla.

At some dates prior to 1646, the following children, it is surmised, may have been born, completing the number eleven. Of these very little is known : —

- ix. ZACHARIAH. Mitchell states that Anna Alden who married Josiah Snell in 1699, was a daughter of Zachariah, who, through her, was an ancestor of William Cullen Bryant.
- x. REBECCA, mentioned in colonial records as of marriageable age in 1661, and therefore probably a daughter of John'.
- xi. PRISCILLA, signed settlement of estate of John', but it is doubtful whether she was the widow or a daughter.

SECOND GENERATION

JOSEPH ALDEN, son of John' and Priscilla (Mulins) Alden, farmer, was born in Plymouth about 1627. He was one of the early settlers of Bridgewater in 1654, on the land granted to his father which lay near the Historical Society's building in the present town of West Bridgewater. He married Mary, daughter of Moses and Sarah (—) Simmons, or Symonsen, Moses having come from England in the ship Fortune in 1621.

Joseph died in Bridgewater, February 8, 1697. The ground where he was probably buried is known, but the grave is not marked. Copies of his will and of the inventory of his estate are preserved in the Plymouth probate records, his wife and son John being named executors. The will, etc., are transcribed in "Mayflower Descendant," Vol. VI, page 71.

According to a genealogical letter written by John⁴ Alden in 1801, his grandfather Joseph² had three sons and three daughters, and two of the daughters married Snows of Weymouth. (Letter given in "Mayflower Descendant," Vol. VI, page 110.) The list is as follows, the sons in the order given in the will.

- i. ISAAC, born 16—, died December 2, 1685, farmer, of Bridgewater, married Mehitable Allen.
- ii. JOSEPH, born 1667, died December 22, 1747, farmer, of Bridgewater, married Hannah Dunham.
- iii. JOHN, born 1674, died September 29, 1730, farmer, of Middleborough, married Hannah White. He was grandfather of Eliab⁵ Alden.
- iv. ELIZABETH, born 167—, died 1705, married Benjamin Snow of Bridgewater.
- v. MERCY, born 16—, died —, married John Burrill of Weymouth.

And probably

- vi. HOPESTILL, who married Joseph Snow of Bridgewater, though the latter marriage has not been proved. ("Mayflower Descendant," Vol. VI, page 110.)

THIRD GENERATION

JOHN ALDEN, son of Joseph² and Mary (Simmons) Alden, farmer, was born in 1674, and removed about 1700 from Bridgewater to Middleborough, being one of the twenty-six purchasers of the land from the Indians. The cellar of his house is a few rods north of the road from North Middleborough to Middleborough. ("Descendants of Polly and Ebenezer Alden," page 12.) He married Hannah, daughter of Capt. Ebenezer and Hannah (Phillips) White of Weymouth. Ebenezer was son of Thomas White, one of the earliest settlers of that town.

John died at Middleborough, September 29, 1730, and his will and the inventory of his estate are recorded in Plymouth, the wife and son David being executors. This will, besides disposing of real and personal estate, directs "that there be a piece of land left for a Burying place," "to be perpetually reserved for that use," also "that my son Noah be brought up to learning at the colledge" and that certain land be sold "to defray the charge thereof," and bequeaths his negro man to his wife. This will is copied in "Descendants of Polly and Ebenezer Alden" page 12.

The burying ground referred to in John's will, now called the "Purchase" cemetery, from a local Indian name, is situated on Plymouth street, North Middleborough. With many other Aldens, John and Hannah lie buried there, their headstones bearing these inscriptions, as given in "Descendants of Polly and Ebenezer Alden," page 19: —

Here Lyes y^e Body of M^r John Alden Who Dec^d Sept^{br} y^e 29th 1730 In y^e 56th Year of His Age.

Here Lyes y^e Body of M^{rs} Hannah Allden wife to M^r John Allden who Dec^d Oct^{br} y^e 5th 1732 In y^e 52th year of her Age.

John³ and Hannah Alden had thirteen children, as follows, the list being the same as that given in the genealogical letter of John⁴ Alden already referred to.

- i. DAVID, born May 18, 1702, died August 24, 1763, married Judith Paddleford.
- ii. PRISCILLA, born March 2, 1704, died —, married Abraham Borden.
- iii. THANKFUL, born 1708, died October 29, 1732, married Francis Eaton.
- iv. HANNAH, born 1709, died —, married Thomas Wood.
- v. LYDIA, born December 18, 1710, died —, married 1, Samuel Eddy; 2, John Fuller.
- vi. MARY, born November 18, 1712, died August 1, 1787, married Noah Thomas.
- vii. ABIGAIL, born September 8, 1714, died January —, 1744, married Nathan Thomas.

- viii. JOSEPH, born September 11, 1716, died January 26, 1787, married Hannah Hall and was grandfather of Eliab^s Alden.
- ix. JOHN, born October 8, 1718, died March 27, 1821, aged 102, married 1, Lydia Lazel; 2, Rebecca Weston.
- x. EBENEZER, born October 8, 1720, died —, married 1, Anna Whitaker; 2, Rebecca Smith.
- xi. LEMUEL, born 1721, died young.
- xii. NATHAN, born June 12, 1723, died young.
- xiii. NOAH, born May 31, 1725, died May 5, 1797, married Joanna Vaughn.

FOURTH GENERATION

JOSEPH ALDEN, son of John³ and Hannah (White) Alden, farmer, was born September 11, 1716, probably in Middleborough, and resided there. According to "Descendants of Polly and Ebenezer Alden," page 22, tradition says that he lived in a house still standing on Centre Street, North Middleborough, very near the village, and the second on the left beyond the Colonel Eaton place.

He married, April 1, 1742, Hannah, daughter of Samuel and Mercy (Willis) Hall of Raynham, born 1718, a descendant of George Hall, one of the early settlers of Taunton. She died July 1, 1766, and Joseph then married, September 3, 1767, Deborah Williamson, born 1716, by whom he had no children and who survived him.

Joseph died January 26, 1787, and with his wife Hannah, lies buried in Purchase cemetery, where their headstones, according to "Descendants of Polly and Ebenezer Alden," pages 19 and 20, read as follows: —

MEMENTO MORTIS In Memory of M^r
Joseph Alden Who died Jan y^e 26 1787
Aged 70 years
Here Lies buried Hannah Alden Wife of M^r Joseph Alden She Dec^d July y^e 1st 1766 in y^e 48th year of her Age

In the Probate records at Plymouth may be found Joseph's appointment as administrator, and the settlement of the estate of his son Ebenezer, who died in 1773, and later the settlement of Joseph's own estate by his son Abner.

Joseph⁴ and his wife Hannah had eleven children.

- i. EBENEZER, born February 4, 1743, died January 6, 1773; merchant, of Middleborough. He married Ruth Fobes. The "Descendants of Polly and Ebenezer Alden" gives the history of two of his children and of their descendants.
- ii. AMARIAH, born —.
- iii. JOSEPH, born February 4, 1746.

- iv. MERCY, born July 23, 1747.
- v. PHEBE, born April 25, 1749.
- vi. HANNAH, born August 24, 17—.

These five last named died in 1751 during an epidemic of what was then called "black sore throat."

- vii. FEAR, born May 2, 1753, died March 29, 1842.
She married Lewis Hall of Raynham.
- viii. EUNICE, date of birth and death not known.
- xi. LOIS, born 1761 or 2, died November 3, 1836, aged 75 years, according to "Descendants of Polly and Ebenezer Alden," page 49. Her name there appears in the order of births given in the genealogical letter of John⁴ Alden. If that order, which is also followed here, is correct, then Lois must have been born several years before the date given, 1761 or 2, in the period of five years between the births of Fear and Abner.
- x. ABNER, born about 1758, as his gravestone, seen 1904, in Bristol, R. I., reads "Died Aug. 26, 1820, Aged 62." He was unmarried. He was graduated at Brown University with degree of A. B. in 1787, and received that of A. M. in 1790; a teacher, at Greenwich and Bristol, R. I., and author of Columbian series of school books in four volumes. (Brown University Records.)
- xi. ELIAB. The exact date of his birth is unknown. It is not given in the Middleborough Town Records. His wife's Bible gives it as March 24, 1760, but the date has been altered from March 29, 1761, as it originally stood. Eliab's gravestone in Cairo reads simply "Died 1844 aged 84," without giving month or day of death, which was March 14, 1844. A letter from Eliab to his sister, Mrs. Fear Hall of Raynham (letter given later), dated Cairo, August 18, 1843, states he was then 82 years old.

ELIAB⁵ ALDEN

AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

ELIAB⁵ ALDEN, son of Joseph⁴ and Hannah (Hall) Alden, was born in Middleborough, Massachusetts, March 24 or 29, 1760 or 1761. (See last paragraph of Part First.)

It is not unlikely that his birth occurred in the house mentioned in the account of his father as having been occupied by the latter and still standing.

The records of the Pension Bureau at Washington show that Eliab, in January, 1776, and therefore before he was fifteen or sixteen years of age, volunteered as a private in Colonel Ward's Massachusetts Regiment, and served one year, during which he was present and participated in the battles of Long Island and White Plains, N. Y.; that in the winter of 1778 he served for three months in Colonel Sproat's Massachusetts Regiment, and in July, 1779, he volunteered for nine months in Colonel Brewer's Massachusetts Regiment, serving out his term; that still later he served two months in Captain Washburn's Company, Massachusetts Militia, guarding the crew of the British Brig Somerset, who were prisoners.

In May and September, 1778, it appears from the Massachusetts Revolutionary rolls, he served as private in Colonel Sproutt's Regiment, in the "Alarm" at Dartmouth, Massachusetts, and the pay roll of this service, dated Middleborough, October 12, 1779, gives his name and description, "Age 18; height 5 ft. 10 in.; complexion light." Whether his age was 18 at date of service or of roll is not stated. Eliab had therefore two years and two months' Revolutionary service, not counting that as "Minute Man."

On the 6th of March, 1782, at Middleborough, he married Mary, daughter of Levi and Mary (Robinson) Hathaway of Taunton. She was born in Taunton July 3, 1766, and was descended from Nicholas Hathaway, one of the early settlers of Taunton, who came to New England in 1638. Her father, Levi, was a Minute man, serving in several "Alarms" during the Revolution, and her grandfather, John Hathaway, was Colonel of the 2nd Massachusetts Militia, in service from 1777 to 1780. Through her mother, Mary Robinson, she was a descendant of Increase Robinson, also an early settler of Taunton, whose father William came to Dorchester in 1637. Mary (Hathaway) Alden's Bible, an edition printed in 1821, gives dates of the birth, marriage, and in some cases, of the death of her children.

Eliab was still in Middleborough in August, 1789, for on the 29th of that month, Deborah Alden, second wife and widow of his father Joseph, made to his brother Abner and himself "both of Middleboro aforesaid, yeomen," and to her other step-children and step-grandchildren, a quit-claim deed of her right of dower in the estate of her husband Joseph. "Descendants of Polly and Ebenezer Alden," page 23, gives text of this document.

About 1792, Eliab appears to have moved to Wareham, Massachusetts, where his third child, Levi Hathaway, was born. Then prior to 1798, judging from the place of birth of his next two children, he moved to East Windsor, Connecticut, and finally, about 1802, to Cairo, Greene County, New York. Tradition says that he was led to go to Cairo by the fact that his wife's brother Levi Hathaway, a physician, was in practice there.

In Cairo Eliab settled permanently as a farmer. After what must have been, from the stony character of the land, a hard struggle, he acquired considerable property, and a substantial homestead. This house is still standing about a mile from Cairo on the main road to Catskill.

Eliab Alden died at Cairo, March 14, 1844, and his wife, Mary, May 20, 1859, at the same place. They were both buried at Cairo, the following being the inscriptions on their headstones: —

Eliab Alden, died 1844, aged 84 years.

Mary Hathaway, wife of Eliab Alden

born July 3, 1766.

died May 20, 1859.

Eliab's will is recorded in the office of the County Clerk, at Catskill, his son Levi Hathaway being executor.

Eliab^s and Mary (Hathaway) Alden had six children, whose history will be found under "Sixth Generation." They were as follows:

- | | |
|---------------------|--------------------|
| i. ELIAB. | iv. CHARLES HENRY. |
| ii. ABNER. | v. MARY. |
| iii. LEVI HATHAWAY. | vi. JOSEPH. |

The original of the following interesting letter, written not long before Eliab's death, is in the possession of Mrs. H. K. Bradford of Wakefield, Mass., a great-granddaughter of Fear (Alden) Hall, who had died, it seems, more than a year before its date.

CAIRO, August 8, 1843.

My Dear Sister,

I make use of my son Joseph's hand to write, as I am too old to do much more writing myself. I am eighty-two years old. I find my strength gradually decaying. I am, however, able to be about and my appetite is tolerably good. I do not expect to live a great while longer. My wife is seventy-seven and is able to be about and see to her work. We live alone, except a grandson about five years old. My son Eliab lives a few rods from my house. Levi lives sixteen miles off. Charles is Chaplain in the Navy and is in Europe. My daughter died about four years ago. She left two children, the youngest lives with us. Joseph is a Professor in Williams College in your State. I wish to hear from you and hope you will write as soon as you get this. Tell me about the old people you think I would like to know about, and don't forget to tell me your age. I have property enough to make me comfortable and my children are all doing well. I do not expect to come down to the East again. It is not likely we shall meet again on earth. O may we meet in heaven. Remember us to your family and to any that may inquire for us. Don't forget to write soon for I want to hear from you once more.

Your affectionate brother,

ELIAB ALDEN.

SIXTH GENERATION

ELIAB ALDEN, eldest child of Eliab⁵ and Mary (Hathaway) Alden, was born, according to his mother's Bible record, at Middleborough, Massachusetts, December 9, 1785. He accompanied his father to Cairo, New York, in 1802, and when he grew up and married, occupied an adjoining farm, his house being on the other side of the road from the homestead.

Eliab married at Cairo, March 31, 1812, Mehetable Stevens, who was born in 1799. He died March 4, 1860, and his wife February 11, 1855, both at Cairo, and were buried there.

Eliab⁶ and Mehetable (Stevens) Alden had eight children. (See Seventh Generation.)

| i. AMANDA. | v. JOHN SPOOR. |
| ii. ABNER. | vi. MARCELLUS LAFAYETTE. |
| iii. CHARLES. | vii. HENRY. |
| iv. JOHN. | viii. ORRAMEL BROSWORTH. |

ABNER ALDEN, second child of Eliab⁵ and Mary (Hathaway) Alden, was born in Middleborough, Massachusetts, December 14, 1790. He was a physician, and was graduated with the degree of M. D. at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York City, in the spring of 1818. He died September 28, 1818, at South Bridgewater, Massachusetts, where he had commenced practice. He was unmarried.

LEVI HATHAWAY ALDEN of Windham, New York, third child of Eliab⁵ and Mary (Hathaway) Alden, was born in Wareham, Massachusetts, August 28, 1793, and came with his father to Cairo.

In the war of 1812, he was a sergeant in a New York Militia Regiment. Later, he had a blacksmith and carriage-maker's shop at Windham, Greene County, New York, near Cairo. Retiring from that business in 1836, he engaged in farming and lumbering. In 1828 he was appointed a Justice of the Peace, and in 1840 Associate Judge of Greene County. In 1841, he bought a large tract of land in Wayne County, Pennsylvania, and established tanneries there, founding the town of Aldenville. These tanneries were managed by his sons, Julius and Levi, by whom they were afterwards inherited.

Levi Hathaway died at Carbondale, Pennsylvania, August 5, 1850, and was buried at Aldenville.

He married at Windham, January 23, 1817, Amanda, daughter of Jahiel Tuttle. They had three children. (See Seventh Generation.)

- i. JAMES MADISON.
- ii. JULIUS TUTTLE.
- iii. LEVI HATHAWAY.

CHARLES HENRY ALDEN, fourth child of Eliab^s and Mary (Hathaway) Alden, was born in Lyme, Connecticut, June 17, 1798, his parents being on their return from Middleborough, Massachusetts, to East Windsor, Connecticut, where they then resided.

In the war of 1812, he served as drummer in Captain Cheristree's Co., Lt. Col. Van Dolfen's Regiment of New York Militia, probably in the defences of New York City. This is shown by records of the Pension Bureau, upon which a land warrant was issued.

He was an Episcopal Minister, being ordained deacon in 1822, and priest in 1823, by Bishop Griswold of the Eastern Diocese. From 1822 to 1825 he was Principal of Kent Academy, Greenwich, Rhode Island, and in charge of a Mission at that place.
